JAPANESE-CALIFORNIA QUESTION

There is Nothing Pending in Congress Half So

Necessity of California's Congressional Delegation Using Their Full Influence Against Legislation that Japan Might Resent-Wisdom of Placating Anti-Japanese Sentiment on the Pacific Coast as Quickly as Possible

President Realizes the Situation.

Although he taiked with great deliberation and care, the president still recognizes the existence of a deeply entagonistic sentiment against the Japanese in California, and the wisdom of placating that sentiment so as to end the agitation with as little delay as possible. Because of the almost ananimous feeling in that state the president realizes the responsibility resting upon Governor Gillette in using his influence upon the legislature.

Authors on the Southern California and the such coast from foreign invasion and without coast, it was explained.
